100th Annual Pilgrimage to honor the Heroes of the Alamo

Monday, April 23, 2018

3:15 pm: Tobin Center

4 pm: The Alamo

Keynote Speaker: LtGen Steven Kwast, Commanding AETC

The Pilgrimage began in 1918 as a tribute to the fallen soldiers of the Battle of the Alamo on San Jacinto Day. It consists of a processional of community individuals and groups from the Tobin Center Vietnam Memorial and culminates with a wreath laying ceremony at the Alamo.

You and/or your group have been selected to participate!

Instructions: Arrive at the Tobin Center Vietnam Memorial by 3:15 pm and receive instructions from DRT members. Bring a wreath or flowers for placement at the Alamo. The processional will continue to the Alamo. Customarily, period dress or the official dress of the organization represented is worn. Fiesta attire or period dress is recommended for individuals. Groups and individuals honor the heroes by laying a wreath or flowers on the green at the Alamo. A solemn ceremony will follow.

RSVP to drtpilgrimage2018@gmail.com. Please include the number and names in your party.

Help us make this the best Pilgrimage ever!
