The Daughters of the Republic of Texas cordially invite you to attend the

Ground Breaking Ceremony
for the

Republic of Texas History Center

Friday, November 15, 2019

2:00 PM

810^{1/2} San Marcos Street

Austin, TX 78702

Please join the Daughters as they break ground for the Republic of Texas History Center which will be the new home for the Daughters of the Republic of Texas. This 21st Century Design will feature a museum, lineage research center, Headquarters and conference facilities.

Texas is a state of mind.

Texas is an obsession.

Above all,

Texas is a nation

in every sense of the word. "

- John Steinbeck

What is the Republic of Texas Historical Center?

The RTHC will serve as the new DRT Headquarters housing a family research center, a history museum, a gift shop, workshops and more.

There is still time to be part of new DRT headquarters. Your support is needed and all donations are appreciated.

Any donation of $5,000 and above will be a named donor at the Republic of Texas Historical Center.

If you are interested in being a major donor with a naming opportunity please contact Cindy Anderson @ 512-869-4665.

District VII's Traveling History Trunk
Thank you Di-Anna Arias for donating the trunk and thank you Carla Miller for replacing contents of our traveling trunk so we can share Texas History in the schools again.

Alamo Mission Chapter welcomed new members Lt- Rt: Michelle Eastham, Joan Thaggard, Karen Johnson, Denette Krawczynski, Edi Grimes, Mary Ruiz, Yolanda Parker and Helena Abbassi to the DRT in October.

Sister Martha Ann Kirk shared the history of the Sisters of Charity in a one woman drama.
